Crye-Leike operations began in Memphis in December 1977 with its first branch office in Bartlett. As new branch offices were added and more sales associates joined the company, Crye-Leike grew to become the largest real estate firm in Memphis within three years, with operations expanding into West Memphis, Arkansas and North Mississippi.

In 2006 Crye-Leike, Inc. (Memphis area) collectively sold 11,175 units with a sales volume of $2.1 billion, up 7.41 percent from a year earlier and the best year ever since the company founding in 1977.

In 2007 in the Memphis area Crye-Leike recorded $2 billion in sales volume. The company also relocated its Germantown Exeter office to Forest Hill-Irene Road and purchased former Anderton's restaurant for a new Midtown Memphis office.

Franchise office sales figures are tracked separately.
